Joseph: Detours, Delays, and Disappointment

Genesis 37-46
Sunday, February 9, 2025
Dr. Scott K. Thomas II

Context Statement: Joseph's story is a powerful demonstration of God's sovereign plan, unfolding from betrayal and suffering to redemption and purpose. Sold into slavery by his jealous brothers (Gen. 37), he endured trials in Egypt, but remained faithful. The moment of truth arrives in Gen. 42-45, when his brothers unknowingly bow before him during a famine, fulfilling the dreams God gave him as a boy and revealing God's providential hand in preserving his people.
