Esther II: The Plot to Save the Jews

Esther 4-7
Dr. Scott K. Thomas II
Sunday, August 24, 2025

Context Statement: In Esther 4-7, the narrative shifts from the deadly plot against the Jews to the courageous plan for their deliverance. These chapters build the dramatic tension of the story—fasting, bold petition, and God’s providential reversal—culminating in Haman’s downfall and the preservation of God’s people. For the Christian, the account reminds us that God works sovereignly through human courage and faith, ultimately pointing us to Christ.
