How to Pray

Ephesians 3:14-15
Dr. Scott K. Thomas II
Sunday, September 8, 2024

Context Statement: Regrouping from a lengthy digression about the mystery of the Gospel and his ministry (Eph. 3:1-13), Paul restarts his prayer for the redeemed and reconciled Church. The approach of his prayer (v14-15) offers insight into the practice of prayer, and the contents of the prayer (v16-19) demonstrate the value of praying for others.

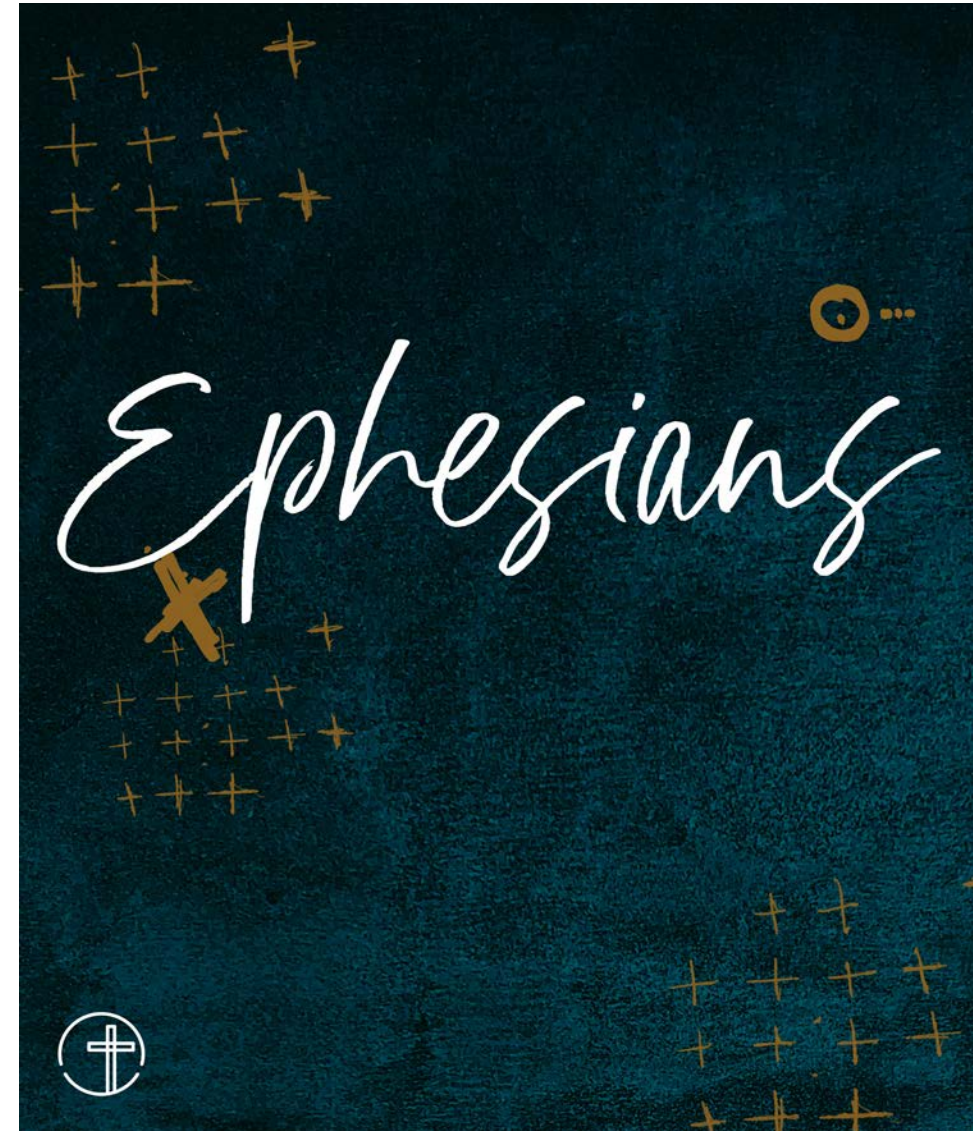

1. The _____ of Prayer: Who do I pray to?

2. The _____ of Prayer: How do I enter prayer?

3. The _____ of Prayer: Why should I pray?

How to Pray
Ephesians 3:14-15

Welcome to Lone Oak

We are so glad that you are here. Take time to fill out the connection card attached to this bulletin. This will help us get to know you and your family. Also, if you have any questions about our church or beliefs feel free to write them on the card.

Drop your card in an offering box located at the Worship Center exits or give it to a greeter at the Connection Center in the foyer. We look forward to reaching out to you to see how we can pray for and encourage you.

Life Groups

Life is better in a community with other believers, and our Life Groups are designed to help reach into our community, to teach us from God's word, and to give us an avenue to minister and care for one another within the church body. If you're not part of a Life Group, stop by the Connection Center this morning and let's talk.

Next Steps

If you are ready to take the next step in your spiritual journey, a minister will be near the Connection Center to greet you, hear your story, pray with you, and show you how to take the NEXT STEP.

Your next step might be:

- to pray with someone.
- to ask Christ to be your Lord & Savior.
- to join a Life Group.
