The Wounded Savior Brings Our Healing

Isaiah 53:5
Dr. Scott K. Thomas II
Sunday, March 15, 2026

Context Statement: Isaiah speaks to a people whose worship had become hollow—ritual without repentance, sacrifice without transformed hearts. Into this context of spiritual sickness, Isaiah 53:5 reveals the Servant who bears sin and suffering, pointing ultimately to Jesus, whose personal and permanent sacrifice brings peace and healing.

Welcome to Lone Oak

We are so glad that you are here. Take time to fill out the connection card attached to this bulletin. This will help us get to know you and your family. Also, if you have any questions about our church or beliefs feel free to write them on the card.

Drop your card in an offering box located at the Worship Center exits or give it to a greeter at the Connection Center in the Lobby. We look forward to reaching out to you to see how we can pray for and encourage you.

Life Groups

Life is better in a community with other believers, and our Life Groups are designed to help reach into our community, to teach us from God's word, and to give us an avenue to minister and care for one another within the church body. If you're not part of a Life Group, stop by the Connection Center this morning and let's talk.

Next Steps

If you are ready to take the next step in your spiritual journey, a minister will be near the Connection Center to greet you, hear your story, pray with you, and show you how to take the NEXT STEP.

Your next step might be:

- to pray with someone.
- to ask Christ to be your Lord & Savior.
- to join a Life Group.
